Tandem data download instructions

- Create t:connect account at tconnect.tandemdiabetes.com.

- On your first time uploading, plug the pump into the computer and upload on the t:connect website

- After that, the pump can upload automatically using the t:connect mobile app. Turn on your Bluetooth settings, and connect to wifi.

- To share data with your provider:

    - Give provider your t:connect account email and password to allow them access to your t:connect report.

    - Notify office staff any time you upload since a notification is not sent to your provider.
